

WHERE ART AND WINE PAIR UP

The FIAAC en Pouilly Fumé will be held from Thursday, 6 May through Sunday, 9 May inclusive. As usual, the artists (painters and sculptors) will show their work in the cellars of the winemakers who have selected them. Whether the cellars are ultra-modern or ultra-traditional, they all make the art look fantastic and are a big draw for visitors. Artists are invited to submit their applications before 1 December 2026.

ORGANISATION

The artists' files are reviewed by a committee composed of art specialists, artists, and winemakers. The selection criteria are originality, consistency, and of course quality. Each winemaker then chooses the artist whose paintings, sculpture, or both they would like to exhibit in their cellar. Notice of selection will be sent to the relevant artists at the end of January 2027. Publicity The FIAAC is publicized through a local and national advertising campaign. It also has a dedicated website, and a catalogue presenting each artist and their host is printed every year.

JURY AND AWARDS

Every year a different jury of three well-known members of the French art world awards two prizes:

- the Grand Prix de la FIAAC en Pouilly Fumé to an artist,
- the Zeuxis Prize to the best exhibition (artist + winemaker).
- The artists award the Dionysos Prize to the wine of one of the participating winemakers.

The awards ceremony will be held on 8 May 2027.

LOGISTICS

The works will be installed in the cellars on Wednesday, 5 May 2027.

Picture rails and lighting are provided by each winemaker, who also provides free accommodation for the artist and the artist's guest. The artists are responsible for transporting and insuring their works. The artists set their prices freely and pay no commission on sales.

The artists and winemakers welcome visitors together during opening hours.

Les Rendez-vous du Pouilly Fumé will start providing all additional information to the selected artists at the end of January.
